Question 1

Some people believe that final exams are an inappropriate way of measuring a student's true academic ability and should be replaced with continuous assessments held throughout the school year. Do you agree with this view?

OR

Question 2

Statistics have shown a sharp rise in juvenile crime and social problems involving youths. What do you think are the possible reasons for this emerging trend?

You can use the space below to draft your ideas. Whatever you write here will not be graded.
