OH! OPEN HOUSE

INTRODUCTION

OH! (Open House) is Singapore’s only art walkabout. We bring people through the neighbourhood and share stories with them. Then we take them into real life homes transformed by artists. It is a way to explore Singapore one neighbourhood at a time.

Through 3 editions in Niven Road, Marine Parade and Tiong Bahru, we have conducted some 400 tours with over 5000 people, with many more turned away due to limited capacity.

As an artistic and cultural platform, our objectives are:

a. To reach out to people not usually interested in the arts and culture

b. To create alternative, participative models for experiencing art and heritage

c. To create shared memories and define the space we live in as extensions of our lives

OH! SELECTED MEDIA

It’s a shared experience. You go on a tour, and it’s a bit like an adventure.
Feb 11 2012 ST Life!

My group, for example, included people who defied all odds to attend the tour, namely four elderly Caucasians, a very pregnant lady with her husband, and an energetic lady with her toddler on her back.
