FAQs on Rules & Regulations (Student)

Frequently Asked Questions on IT Rules & Regulations for Students

1. What'll happen to me if I'm caught violating these Rules and Regulations spelled out here?
   Depending on Centre for IT Services (CITS) investigation and the severity of violation or exploit, you could be referred to the University's Board of Discipline for disciplinary actions. In some cases, a police report may also be made.

2. What are the disciplinary actions that could be taken against me?
   As spelt out in the Rules & Regulations (Student), disciplinary action that could be taken out against you includes, but not limited to, fines, suspension of the user accounts, suspension or expulsion from the University. For some cases, you may be subject to prosecution by the legal authorities of Singapore.

3. Who chairs the University's Board of Discipline?
   As mentioned in Statute 24 Discipline of the NTU Constitution, the Chairman of the Board of Discipline is the President of NTU or his nominee.

4. What is the Computer Misuse and Cybersecurity Act?
   The Computer Misuse and Cybersecurity Act (CMCA) protects computers, computer programs and data stored in computers from unauthorized access, modification, interception and interference. You can read more about this act here.

5. Who handles the investigations on incident reports, security, account abuses, etc. in NTU?
   CIRT (Computer Incident Response Team) handles all aspects of IT security, from the prevention, detection and resolution of incidents in NTU.

6. How could I contact the CIRT (Computer Incident Response Team)?:
   You may contact CIRT by e-mail at cirt@ntu.edu.sg