Nanyang Business School is one of only 4 schools outside the U.S. with an AACSB accreditation in Accounting, and an Accounting faculty that is ranked first in ASEAN and third in Asia Pacific. The school has 50 years of experience in educating business leaders. Many of our illustrious alumni hold key management positions in renowned global organisations. Seize the chance to become part of this elite community as our accountancy programme prepares you to succeed in a fast-paced, high-tech global economy.

Experience an innovative approach to learning through Project Discovery, a revolutionary teaching method which focuses on risk management and strategy. Broaden your learning through overseas exposure and cross-disciplinary studies in science, technology, humanities, arts, social sciences and education. Enjoy the best of campus life in a residential environment that hones leadership skills and encourages independence. Join the league of NTU graduates and leverage the extensive network of well-connected alumni.

Discover a truly enriching learning experience at NTU.

Applications close on 1 April 2007 for Singapore-Cambridge GCE ‘A’ Level graduates.