SG100 ‘SEE FUTURE VIDEO’ COMPETITION

OBJECTIVE

The competition is co-organised by APA and the National Youth Achievement Award (NYAA) Council. It seeks to foster transnational policy learning and to encourage ASEAN youths to be part of the SG100 in an inclusive and educational way.

THE COMPETITION

The theme of the competition is “SG100 through your lens”. Through a 2 – 6 min video, participants are to showcase one best policy practice from Singapore’s past 50 years that they would like to share with their ASEAN home-country and one best policy practice from their ASEAN home-country that they would like to share with Singapore for her next 50 years. Policies need to be specific and implementable. The competition will last for 4 months from February 2016 to May 2016.

Video content should be the original work of the participants and should not have been entered in previous competitions. They should also not be copies of published photographs, illustrations or other materials protected by copyright laws.

Each group may submit no more than 3 entries.

ELIGIBILITY

The contest is open to citizens and permanent residents from the ASEAN countries residing anywhere in the world. Participants are to be between ages 16 – 35 (age as of 1 January 2016).

The ASEAN countries are as follows:

- Indonesia
- Malaysia
- Philippines
- Thailand
- Brunei
- Cambodia
- Laos
- Myanmar
- Vietnam
- Singapore

The following are ineligible for the competition:

- Employees of Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy and NYAA Council
- APA advisory board members and core members
Groups must comprise at least 2 members (1 from Singapore, 1 from an ASEAN country) and a maximum of 5 members.

SUBMISSION OF ENTRIES

- Group(s) are to register their interest via the application form by 15 Feb 2016, 2359 hours (UTC+08:00) Kuala Lumpur, Singapore.
- Entry(s) are to be uploaded onto YouTube with and submit the link to the video and a write-up of not more than 200 words by email by 18 Mar 2016, 2359 hours (UTC+08:00) Kuala Lumpur, Singapore.
- Entries submitted later than the stated date and time will be disqualified.

JUDGING ROUNDS

FIRST ROUND JUDGING

The APA committee will convene an expert panel to assess the entries according to the following criteria:

- Content and relevance to the theme - 50%
  - Requirement: at least 1 policy practice from Singapore and 1 policy Singapore can adopt. Failure to provide both perspectives will equate to immediate termination of candidature.
  - Emphasis on sensitivity to context and feasibility to implementation

- Creative and Entertainment Value - 35%
  - Creative and innovative factor of ideas
  - Entertainment value of video

- Short write-up of video - 15%

Decision of the judges is final.

SECOND ROUND JUDGING (FACEBOOK LIKES AND EXPERT PANEL)

- After the first round of evaluation, 10 selected videos will be uploaded onto APA Facebook page for public voting through likes.
- Scoring:
  - Facebook voting - 70%
  - Expert panel - 30%
- Participants from the 10 selected videos are expected to share their video(s) through APA Facebook page as the form for garnering likes.
- Voting period will be in April 2016.
- APA and NYAA Council will convene an expert panel, comprising professors and practitioners of public policy, and determine the other 30% of the final score.
The videos with highest score will be awarded the first prize, followed by 2nd and 3rd on Think Future Forum in May 2016. All top finalists will be invited to Think Future Forum.

PRIZE AWARDS
The prize awards are as follows:

- First Prize - S$3000 worth of prizes
- Second Prize - S$2000 worth of prizes
- Third Prize - S$1000 worth of prizes

COPYRIGHTS

- All winning entries submitted shall become the sole property of APA.
- Winning entries have to be submitted in HI-RES version via CD-ROM upon APA request. The copyright in the videos submitted shall belong solely to APA.
- APA reserves the right to use, modify and/or reproduce by means of photographs, slides or any form the art pieces in the manner described below or for any other purpose, without payment of any fees and without seeking the prior consent of the participants.

Key Partner:

[Image of National University of Singapore logo]

[Image of Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy logo]