The essence of this workshop is diagrammatic captured in the figure above. The focus will be on molecular mechanisms which underpin this energy cycle; the photosynthetic reaction responsible for splitting of water to produce oxygen and its reduction by respiration to release energy in the form of ATP.