OLYMPICS CHIEF MEETS UNDERGRADS: Is the Singapore Youth Olympic Games just an experiment and how would you define its success? Those were questions posed to International Olympic Committee president Jacques Rogge by Nanyang Technological University student Aika Baimuratova (inset), 24, who is from Kazakhstan. “By the smiles of the athletes,” he replied. His dialogue with students from local universities was held at the Youth Olympic Village at NTU yesterday.