2023 UCAT

UNIVERSITY CLINICAL APTITUDE TEST

WHAT'S IN THE TEST?

The UCAT is a two-hour, multiple choice test. It consists of five separately timed subtests which assess a range of mental abilities identified by university medical and dental schools as important.

VERBAL REASONING

Assesses the ability to critically evaluate information presented in written form.

DECISION MAKING

Assesses the ability to make sound decisions and judgements using complex information.

QUANTITATIVE REASONING

Assesses the ability to critically evaluate information presented in numerical form.

ABSTRACT REASONING

Assesses the use of convergent and divergent thinking to infer relationships from information.

SITUATIONAL JUDGEMENT TEST

Measures the capacity to understand real world situations and identify critical factors and appropriate behaviour in dealing with them.

HOW DO I BOOK A TEST?

You need to register to take the test via the UCAT website and can then book a test at a convenient location and time. Details of how to register for the test are on our website under the REGISTER page. We strongly recommend that you take the test at your earliest convenience.

It's important to note that you can only sit the test once in each admissions cycle.

ACCESS ARRANGEMENTS

If you have any special educational needs and require additional time or rest breaks in exams, extended tests are available. Information regarding how to apply to sit these, and other accommodations available can be found on our website under ACCESS ARRANGEMENTS.

HOW DO I PREPARE FOR THE UCAT?

Visit the UCAT website to find out the key information you need to know

Use the Question Tutorials to guide you through each subtest and learn strategies on how to approach and answer questions

Check out advice from high scoring candidates on our website and on the Official UCAT YouTube channel

Take the remaining Practice Tests – step up your practice by sitting the remaining practice tests under timed conditions to improve your speed as you get closer to sitting your test

WHEN DO I GET MY RESULTS?

You will receive a copy of your UCAT score report before you leave the test centre. Your score report will also be accessible online through your UCAT account within 24 hours of taking the test. You can then use your UCAT score to make an informed decision about which universities to apply to.

WHAT ELSE DO I NEED TO KNOW?

The UCAT is unlike most exams you may be used to, so it's useful to understand what to expect on the day of the test. You should ensure you are familiar with the test centre environment before the day by reading the TEST DAY section of our website.

It is essential that you take the correct, signed, photographic identification to the test centre, otherwise you will not be permitted to test. Please ensure you've read the ID POLICY page of our website ahead of time to avoid any issues.

The list opposite is subject to change, so please check the UCAT website for an up to date list of universities and courses before you book your test.
