

Meet

the new challenges of Asia's public governance.

Master of Public Administration

Take on challenges beyond the classroom with a hands-on global education from an Asian perspective. The Master of Public Administration (MPA) programme will enrich your learning experience, providing you with a uniquely immersive environment to engage in real-world issues, as you prepare to take your career in policy-making and public administration to the next level.

Nanyang Centre for Public Administration (NCPA) is dedicated to grooming and mentoring the next generation of public administrators. Through its MPA programme, graduates can look forward to fulfilling careers as future leaders in the public sector.

A unique experience and legacy inherited from the well-known and successful NTU Chinese Mayors' Class. It has trained over 1,200 mid- and senior Chinese government officials successfully for almost two decades.

- A cross-national platform that connects and grooms future public administrators and leaders in Asia and around the world.
- Vast network of over 18,000 NCPA Alumni in China
- Extensive faculty resources with exceptional expertise and diversity that NTU shares with many different colleges.
- Impressive teaching faculty with professors who are current or former politicians or senior government officials in Singapore may lecture in some courses and seminars.

"As Ambassador of Ukraine to Singapore, I was keen to learn about Singapore's best practices in public administration and economic policies that have led to the country's remarkable success. NCPA's MPA programme has enriched my knowledge in various fields of public management. The topics such as government's talent strategies in the face of globalisation and whole-of-government approach, definitely contributed to a better understanding of how the Singapore government works."

Deputy Foreign Minister, CDTO, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Ukraine
Former Ambassador of Ukraine to Singapore,
Brunei Darussalam and New Zealand

PROGRAMME STRUCTURE

The programme is offered on both full-time and part-time basis, with the curriculum consisting of 8 courses (2 core courses and 6 electives) and a capstone paper. The programme will equip students with knowledge, analytical skills and hands-on experience in public administration, management and policy-making.

MPA examines best practices in public administration in Asia in order to enhance the participants' skills in decision making, governance, and policy design and implementation. It includes special lectures by former government officials and renowned academics and professionals. Participants will be equipped with the know-how to develop and implement strategic policies to meet the challenges in their countries, in turn enhancing their effectiveness as public administrators, networking and professional development opportunities in Singapore and beyond.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

- A bachelor's degree in good standing from an accredited university or college is required for all applicants.
- A minimum of two years' or more of full-time work experience after obtaining your bachelor degree
- For students from universities whose medium of instruction is not in English, an English proficiency test, for example, IELTS/ TOEFL is required.

PROGRAMME FEE

The programme fee is S$32,000 and is subjected to the prevailing Goods and Services Tax.

The fee does not cover health check-up, entry visa, student pass, accommodation, meals, overseas study trip, attachment, miscellaneous fees, etc. The tuition fee is payable on an installment basis.

"The programme has helped me develop a better understanding of the fundamental principles of managing a country. It has also taught me how to be creative and still find future improvements for such a beautifully run country like Singapore. I learned that change is always happening and we should continue to find ways to better our government and country."
