

NTU Alumni Homecoming 2020

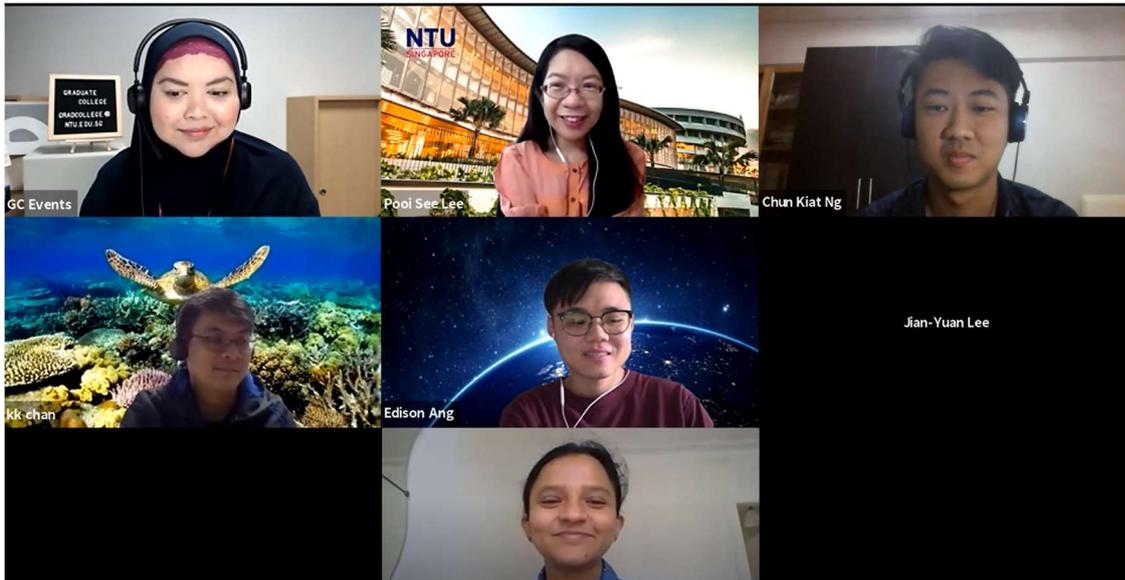

31 October 2020 – The Graduate College participated in the NTU Alumni Homecoming 2020 event on Saturday, 31 October 2020. Organised by NTU’s Alumni Affairs Office, the virtual event welcomed NTU alumni from around the globe to join in the celebrations.

Activities included a merchant e-bazaar, virtual tours, career and lifestyle workshops, welcome speech by NTU’s President, Prof Subra Suresh, as well as a keynote speech by GIC CEO, Mr Lim Chow Kiat.

The Graduate College hosted its own Virtual Exhibition with information brochures on its Community Engagement Program, Postgraduate Internship Program, details of the Interdisciplinary Graduate Programme as well as GC’s bi-monthly newsletter, ‘GradConverge’. Visitors also had the opportunity to virtual chat and video call with GC representatives throughout the exhibition.

Later that day, alumni members joined the Graduate College – Interdisciplinary Graduate Alumni and Postgraduate Studies networking session hosted by the Dean of Graduate College, Prof Lee Pooi See. Prof Lee provided updates on the newly launched MiniMasters programmes, postgraduate internship programme, and discussion on Interdisciplinary Graduate Alumni Association, as well as various opportunities for an alumnus to give back to NTU.

Speech by NTU President and Announcement of Nanyang Alumni Awards 2020 Recipients

2:02pm - 2:18pm

LIVE NOW 103

- ▶ Happening all day
Merchant e-bazaar, Virtual exhibition,
Music lounge and Virtual tours

Morning ◀
Virtual workout sessions

- ▶ Afternoon
Speech by NTU President Prof Subra Suresh
Announcement of Nanyang Alumni Awards 2020 recipients
Keynote Speech by GIC CEO Mr Lim Chow Kiat
Schools & programmes networking sessions
Career, health and lifestyle related workshops

Evening ◀
Special performance by popular local artiste and NTU
alumna Tay Kewei