

Discussion session with Prof Kerson Huang from MIT (December 2009)

A discussion session was held with Professor Kerson Huang from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT). Talk to any science or engineering student and they will have you know that MIT is one of the must-go places for study exchange and an ideal destination for post-graduate studies. Who better to learn about MIT and their researches from than the distinguished Professor Huang, an authority on Statistical Physics?
