

FACT SHEET

Singapore, 22 Jul 2025

NTU Singapore celebrates Class of 2025

The NTU Convocation will be held from 22 Jul to 1 Aug in 24 ceremonies.

The first Convocation ceremony on 22 Jul was attended by Minister for Education and Minister-in-Charge of Social Services Integration, Mr Desmond Lee.

NTU Convocation 2025 will also recognise Lee Kuan Yew Gold Medal recipients, awarded to students who have demonstrated academic excellence, and the Koh Boon Hwee Scholars Awards, which enable outstanding students to honour both an NTU faculty member and a teacher from their former schools or institutions.

In his Convocation address to the Class of 2025, NTU President Professor Ho Teck Hua encouraged graduates to seek purpose in their careers as they embark on the next chapter of their lives, noting that a strong sense of purpose will help them navigate challenging times.

Prof Ho said: "Finding purpose will remind you that your efforts matter and your impact goes way beyond your pay cheque. Remember to actively seek out your purpose. That way, you build not just a career but a life worth living."

NTU Convocation 2025 by the numbers:

Total of 12,106 graduates

- 6,120 Bachelor's degree graduates (includes 225 Bachelor's graduates receiving double degrees, and 56 graduates from the Renaissance Engineering Programme)
- 5,456 graduates receiving Master's degrees
- 530 graduates receiving Doctorate degrees

Total number of convocation sessions: 24