

Kyodo news summary -5-

AP (Hosted)

Yesterday • 9:01 PM

Volvo, Singapore university unveil autonomous electric bus

SINGAPORE - Sweden's Volvo Buses and a Singapore state-run university on Tuesday unveiled the world's first fully autonomous electric-powered bus that will be road-tested on the university's campus this year.

The 12-meter-long bus that can accommodate close to 80 passengers is the result of collaboration between Volvo Buses and the state-owned Nanyang Technology University in the past year.