

DA5008 Incubating Ideas: Image Making and Storytelling

Eligibility: NTU

Joan Marie Kelly (Senior Lecturer)

G01 (64032): Mondays, 1630 –1920 at ART-02-21

Learning Objective

Main objective is to demonstrate the evolution of an idea; incubation, illumination, exploration, reflection, evaluation, revising to the final form of a written story and images.

Content

The course aims to facilitate a process of hatching ideas for writing stories and making images, for novels, children's books, animation or graphic novels, fiction, or non-fiction. The emphasis will be on conceptualization, incubation to discover ideas for writing stories and making images as individuals and group collaborations. We will begin explorations with collaborative games that bring out image and story.
