

EN3912 Professional Attachment

[Lectures: 0 hrs; Tutorials: 0 hrs; Lab: 0 hrs; Pre-requisite: Year 3 standing and completed at least 4 semesters of study (2 semesters for direct entry students); Academic Units: 4]

Learning Objective :

Students to gain an insight of the practical aspects of the environmental engineering industry.

Course Content :

A 10-week training attachment to environmental engineering industry covering the practical aspects of environmental engineering planning, design, construction and operation. The training attachment is supervised by both industry supervisor and university tutor.

Learning Outcome :

Upon completion of the course, students should be able:

- a. Understand the practical aspects of the environmental engineering industry.
- b. Gain valuable contacts necessary to give them an edge in the working world upon graduation.