Lecture: Tuesdays, 15:30-17:20, LT9

Welcome to HL1002! This course will introduce you to more than a millennium of English literature, from the monsters of Beowulf to the exuberant digressions of Laurence Sterne's The Life and Adventures of Tristram Shandy, Gentleman. We will examine a wide range of mostly canonical works in their historical context, paying particular attention to their influence on later literature. The readings will lead us to important questions about the nature of literature and how it changes over time, what it means to talk about 'English' literature, and the relationship between literature and history.

Course Texts:

Stephen Greenblatt, ed., The Norton Anthology of English Literature, ninth edition, Volume 1 (New York: W. W. Norton and Company, 2012).

While most course texts are included in this volume, some will be found in the Norton Anthology's Supplemental Ebook. Others will be made available online. Other editions of The Norton Anthology are acceptable if they contain the assigned texts.

As the major written assignment for this course, your essay will be submitted through Turnitin. Please include a declaration stating: 'This paper represents my own work in accordance with University regulations. I include proper academic references to all my sources.' You do not have to submit a paper copy unless requested by your tutor.

Course Policies:

Attendance and Participation: barring documented illness or emergencies, you must attend every lecture and tutorial. You must arrive on time, having done the required readings and any assigned work, and be ready to participate in the class discussion. Failure to do so will reduce your participation grade significantly. If you must miss a class, please give your tutor as much notice as possible.

Late Work and Extensions: if your essay is late, it will be marked down by one third of a grade (i.e. an A- to a B+) for each day that it is overdue. If you think that you will have to submit your essay late, please speak to your tutor as soon as possible. We would rather know the situation than be surprised and disappointed by a missing essay!

Seeking Help Outside Class: you are encouraged to use any form of legitimate aid to help you write papers and research topics that interest you. Obvious sources of legitimate assistance include your tutors, the writing coaches at the LCC Communication Cube, and the subject librarians at the library. When meeting with tutors, you should prepare specific questions about your work in order to make the most of your time together. Tutors are not expected to read more than one draft per assignment.

Plagiarism and Academic Dishonesty: Don't do it! If your tutors or I find that you have misrepresented someone else's work as your own you will fail the assignment and possibly the course. If you are unsure of how or when to cite a source, please refer to the university's academic integrity resources or ask your tutor.

Questions?

Feel free to come to me or to your tutor if you have any questions! Most importantly, if you feel that you're falling behind in the course for any reason, please talk to one of us. The sooner we discuss any obstacles to your success in this class, the more likely it is that we will be able to fix them.
