

HL0201: Images of Singapore: Literature, Film and Culture

Academic Year: 2020/ 2021 (Semester 1)

Lecture Day: Thursdays, 2:30-5:30pm

Academic Unit: 3 AU

Pre-requisite: NIL

Lecturer: Candice Balete (balete@ntu.edu.sg)

Course Description:

Especially in today's digital world, images proliferate our screens and our lives, indubitably influencing our understanding of societal events. The question that then follows is, to what extent do representations of Singapore (be it visual or textual) further inform one's understanding of Singapore society? In the same vein, to what extent can one's understanding of contemporary Singapore add value to one's appreciation and engagement with literary and filmic representations of Singapore, and by extension, the (trans)national, socio-political, and historical contexts in which they are produced?

Based on these lines of inquiry, this course explores various depictions and representations of Singapore through the reading of literary and filmic texts, and investigates how these representations either inform or challenge our understanding of the predominant narratives of Singapore's culture and identity.

Learning Outcomes:

Students will be expected to:

1. Identify and engage with representations of Singapore in literary and filmic texts.
2. Produce informed critical responses through close-reading and analysis, as well as application of secondary research, to their chosen text(s).

Course Assessment:

1. Midterm essay (1000 – 1500 words): 50% (due Week 10, Oct 22)
2. Online Examination: 50% (Edited June 24, given the e-examination option offered by OAS)
