

HL4023 / Advanced Studies in American Literature:
American Utopias
Wednesdays, 14:30-17:20 / SHHK Sem Rm 9
Asst. Prof. Christopher Trigg / cptrigg@ntu.edu.sg

Description

The word “Utopia,” coined by Sir Thomas More 500 years ago this year, has two meanings: “good place” and “no-place.” In this class, we’ll explore the significance of both of these definitions for American culture, society, and literature. Over the course of its history, America has been seen as a “no-place,” a blank territory onto which individual dreams and shared aspirations can be projected. It’s also been regarded as fertile ground for the plantation of a variety of actual “good places”—communities designed to redress the injustices of mainstream society.

Our journey will take us to diverse places, both real and imagined: a peaceful, yet elitist, society of women in which reproduction no longer requires men; a religious group in New York state who believe that sharing possessions and sexual partners can make human beings perfect; a future California where green activists fight to preserve the wilderness.

Required Texts

Thomas More, Utopia (Dover - 0486295834)
Sutton Griggs, Imperium in Imperio (Modern Library Classics - 0812971604)
Charlotte Perkins Gilman, Herland (Dover - 0486404293)
B.F. Skinner, Walden Two (Hackett - 978-0-87220-778-3)
Thomas Jefferson, Notes on the State of Virginia (Penguin - 0140436677)
Ursula K. Le Guin, The Left Hand of Darkness (Ace Charter - 0441478123)
Kim Stanley Robinson, Pacific Edge (Orb - 0312890389)
Ben Marcus, The Age of Wire and String (Dalkey Archive - 1564781968)

All other texts (those marked with a *) to be posted online.

Assessment

Preparation, Participation 10%
Group Presentation 10%
Term Paper 30%
Final Exam (online) 50%

Participation and Preparation

Each Monday, two discussion questions will be posted via LAMS. Students must write brief answers to both of these questions and post their answers on the thread. Answers must be posted online by 12 noon on Tuesdays, the day before class. Answering these questions is compulsory and your answers will determine a large portion of your participation grade.

Late Penalties

Late work submitted without an approved extension will be penalized one half-mark per day late – an A paper submitted one day late would drop to an A-, etc.

Plagiarism

Please see the School of Humanities’ statement on plagiarism here.

Schedule

1. 11th August

America and Utopia: New Worlds

Thomas More, Utopia, part one

2. 18th August

The Meaning of Utopia

Thomas More, Utopia, part two

Richard Rorty, "Private Irony and Liberal Hope"*

Unit A: Social Utopias

3. 25th August

"The Race Problem"

Sutton E. Griggs, Imperium in Imperio

4. 1st September

A Feminist Utopia

Charlotte Perkins Gilman, Herland

5. 8th September

"A Social System that Really Works"

B.F. Skinner, Walden Two

6. 15th September

The American Revolution

Thomas Jefferson, "Declaration of Independence."*

---, Notes on the State of Virginia

Unit B: Religious Utopias

7. 22nd September

The Oneida Perfectionists

Spencer Klaw, Without Sin*

Recess -----

8. 6th October

In-Class Workshop: Utopian Oregon

Selected newspaper articles*

9. 13th October

Scientology

Lawrence Wright, "The Apostate"*

Paul Thomas Anderson, The Master

Unit C: Science Fiction Utopias

10. 20th October

Beyond Gender

Ursula K. Le Guin, The Left Hand of Darkness

11. 27th October

An Ecotopia

Kim Stanley Robinson, Pacific Edge

12. 3rd November

A Utopia of Things

Ben Marcus, from The Age of Wire and String

13. 10th November

Revision and Exam Preparation———term paper due.