

HO LEI KUAN PAMELA

Pam is a published writer, editor and former journalist. She has worked on several commissioned books including Creating the Bicentennial Experience (2019), Singapore Spin: The WTA Finals Legacy (2019), Entrepreneurship Unlimited (2020), The Little Book of CAG (2014), Those Were the Days: The SJI Cadet Corps in the 60s and Early 70s (2022), and a 10th anniversary commemorative book for Sport Singapore to be launched in Nov 2022. She has also co-written a travel memoir Adventures of 2 Girls (2012), published by Marshall Cavendish International (Asia).

Besides writing and editing books, Pam is also an independent research writer and content curator, having done commissioned work for the National Heritage Board's Singapore HeritageFest (roving exhibitions), the National Museum of Singapore's An Old New World: From the East Indies to the Founding of Singapore: 1600s—1819 (Curator's Tour audio-script), and the National Arts Council's digital exhibition, Routes: A Multi-Perspective Exploration of Traditional Dance in Singapore.

Pam was the Editor of The A List, an arts & culture publication initiated by the National Arts Council, and a Deputy Editor with Mediacorp Publishing. Her feature story, (Her)Story of Singapore, was shortlisted for 'Feature Story of the Year' at the 2008 Mediacorp News Awards. Besides storytelling in print, she has also worked in radio and television as a Senior Producer for Channel NewsAsia and Senior Producer-Presenter for 938LIVE (now CNA938).

The literary genre she chooses to focus on is creative nonfiction. She was a mentor in that genre for the NAC-Mentor Access Project (2014—2015).

Her PhD research topic (tentative) touches on indigenous women in our histories. Her research interests include the role of women in Southeast Asian history, diaspora stories, family histories.
