

Electrical Engineer

Job Highlights

- Exposure to exciting projects
- Career development and progression
- Opportunity to work alongside an innovative team

Job Description

Responsibilities:

- To involve in the planning and design of electrical engineering works for building services and as well overall project contract administration.
- To prepare tender documents, design and technical specifications for tenders, as well as supervise the installation and commissioning of electrical works.
- To collaborate with peers of other disciplines in feasibility studies and design, as well as ensure excellent delivery of service to clients.
- Liaison with various stakeholders, clients, consultants and relevant parties.

Requirements:

- Degree in Electrical Engineering from a University recognized by the Professional Engineers Board, Singapore
- Minimum 1-3 years of relevant experience, preferably with design and consultancy experience. Entry level candidates are welcome to apply.
- Good understanding of construction sequences and exposure in design and coordination works in electrical services.
- Conversant with international, Eurocode or local codes and regulations as well as submission procedures
- Knowledge of REVIT, CAD (AutoCAD or Microstation), and engineering design software.
- Good project management and organisational skills, preferably with experience in full project lifecycle
- Excellent interpersonal and communication skills
- Highly organized, able to prioritize tasks and manage time efficiently.

Interested candidate, please send CV to:

Ms Wendy Koh

Email: wendy.koh@cpgcorp.com.sg