

Engineer Position

Responsibilities

- Review and prepare project design submission to ensure the system meets the technical requirement of the project and also for customer's approval;
- Perform hardware design including PLC selection, power distribution, networking, cabinet design and HMI graphics development
- Application logic program testing;
- Perform system testing, factory acceptance testing as well as development of test procedure;
- Assist to coordinate with vendors via procurement on product related issues and resolution.
- Any other duties as assigned by supervisor.

Requirements

- Degree in Engineering with minimum basic knowledge on instrumentation & control
- For those with turbomachinery control knowledge, it will be a bonus.
- Able to work under pressure especially during testing or site service environment;
- Willingness to travel overseas for job assignments is a must;
- Possess positive and initiative attitude

Interested applicants, please send CV to: Ms Pearlyn Chong @ pearlyn.chong@tri-sen.com