

About PES

Process Engineering Specialists is a Singapore head-quartered multi-discipline consultancy providing specialist engineering, project management and construction management services to our clients throughout Asia's pharmaceutical sector.

We are currently hiring for a Commissioning/ Qualification/ Validation (CQV) graduate engineer to join our growing team in Singapore.

Our Company

- Process Engineering Specialists (PES) is a Singapore Based engineering services company, operating within the pharmaceutical sector
- 100% focused on the pharmaceutical sector
- Established in 2012 with operations in Asia, Europe and US.
- Headquartered in Singapore
- ISO 9001:2015 certified
- Privately owned

Our Clients

Graduate Automation Engineer

Key Responsibilities include:

- Undergo Training on Bio-Pharmaceutical engineering in line with GAMP, FDA, EU, PIC/S Singaporean and WHO standards.
- Automation engineer role including:
 - Development of Design Documents (FS/ SDS/ HDS)
 - Creating and updating software on platforms such as Delta V and Siemens.
 - Testing and troubleshooting code as part of a team.
 - Completion GMP Life cycle documentation such as IQ/OQ's.

Requirements:

- Singaporean/ Singapore PR
- Ideal qualification:
 - Automation Engineering
 - Electrical Engineering (With Automation/ Control Modules Completed)
 - Process Engineering (With Automation/ Control Modules Completed)
- Strong analytical mind with good problem solving and writing skills.
- Highly motivated and independent.
- Possess strong interpersonal and communication skills, showing an ability to work within cross-functional teams.
- Organized and result-oriented.

Interested candidates should e-mail their resumes to gcronin@pes-international.com stating their availability and salary expectations.
Only shortlisted candidates will be notified.