Full-time students can register for a maximum of five courses in a semester; Part-time students can register for a maximum of three courses in a semester.

Deferment & Withdrawal from the Programme

23. Can I defer admission for 1 semester or 1 year, or take leave-of-absence?

Deferment is not allowed in the first semester after you have matriculated. You will have to withdraw from the programme and apply for admission again next year.

24. Can I withdraw from the programme after accepting the offer?

You can withdraw from the programme by sending an email to the programme administrator. Withdrawal from programme via email can only be done before matriculation.

25. Can I withdraw from the programme after matriculation?

You can withdraw from the programme after matriculation by submitting a withdrawal from programme form. However, the form has to reach the programme administrator latest by the end of the first teaching week of the semester. Otherwise, you will be liable to pay fees for the entire semester.

Change of Programme Status

26. Can I change my programme status from part-time to full-time or vice versa?

You can change your programme status from full-time to part-time, or part-time to full-time, subject to approval by the School. Your request for the change must reach the programme administrator at least 2 weeks before the start of the semester to facilitate the conversion process.

You will be allowed to do this switch only once throughout the whole candidature. International students can only convert to the part-time study status after they have secured a job and their Employment Pass application is successful.

Accommodation

27. Will I be able to secure on-campus accommodation?

On-campus accommodation is subject to availability. Priority is usually given to undergraduate and graduate research students.

For more information regarding on-campus accommodation, please refer to the following links:

<https://www.ntu.edu.sg/life-at-ntu/accommodation/graduate-housing>

If you are unsuccessful in your application, do arrange for off-campus housing before you arrive in Singapore. For ease of reference, you may refer to some information put together by the Office of Campus Housing: <https://www.ntu.edu.sg/life-at-ntu/accommodation/off-campushousing>
