

Scholarships

We have several scholarships available to help admitted participants finance their MMC programme studies. You may browse through the list of scholarships below for information about eligibility and application deadlines for each scholarship before applying to them.

NTU WKWSCI-Hinrich Global Trade Leader Scholarship Fund

This postgraduate program provides in-depth knowledge about the process of mass communication, the theories and methods needed to analyse and understand the media as social institutions. Our scholarship supports media professionals on their path towards leadership positions in management, planning and policy.

The scholarship will be used towards tuition fees only.

Eligibility:

Open to applicants admitted to the MMC program with:

- Meets NTU admission criteria
- More than 3-years of work experience and display a strong interest in working in global trade
- An interest in working in Asia after graduation
- Complete CV
- A 500-word to 800-word essay on how you will contribute to building sustainable global trade through media and communication after graduating, to be submitted together with your online application
- Can commit to a full-time paid internship at Hinrich Foundation during November to December and/or May to August period for a total of 3 months

Applicants need to be admitted to the NTU WKWSCI – MMC program to be eligible for the scholarship and maintain a minimum GPA of 3.5. Learn more about the program and the admission process here.

<https://www.hinrichfoundation.com/education/scholarships/ntu-wkwsci/>

Merit-Based Scholarship*

The scholarship is available to full-time students from Brunei, Cambodia, Indonesia, Laos, Malaysia, Thailand, Philippines and Vietnam with stellar academic and professional achievements.

Applicant needs to submit their complete CV, academic records and personal essay to support their application towards this scholarship.

The scholarship will be used towards tuition fees only.

Scholarship is reviewed annually.*

Applicants who are interested to apply for the Hinrich Global Trade Leader or the Merit-Based Scholarship, please email the necessary documents to wkwsci_coursework@ntu.edu.sg