For the complete list of supporting documents to be submitted as part of the application package, please refer to this link:

https://www.ntu.edu.sg/admissions/graduate/cwadmissionguide#Content_C040_Col00

9. Is submission of personal statement required for admission?

Submission of personal statement is not compulsory for application to this programme. However, if you feel that it is a value-add to your application, you may do so and upload the document into the online application portal.

10. Is submission of referee/reference/recommendation letters required for admission?

Submission of referee/reference/recommendation letters are not compulsory for application to this programme. However, if you feel that it is a value-add to your application, you may do so and upload the letters into the online application portal.

11. How many referee/reference/recommendation letters can be submitted?

Though there is no number limitation, you may consider submitting just two or three letters.

12. Is there a specific format for the referee/reference/recommendation letters?

We do not have a specific format or template for referee letters, but the referee can include the following information in the letter:

- Information on who the referee is
- Details of the applicant (Full Name, Programme Applied and Application Number)
- Referee's connection with the person they are recommending
- Why the applicant is qualified to apply to the programme, and the specific skills they have
- Individual characteristics that the referee would like to highlight
- Describe example(s) that the applicant impressed the referee (related to studies/projects/assignments)
- Referee's contact information
- The referee letter can be from both academic and/or professional capacity.
- The referee letter should be in an official letterhead, i.e. University letterhead or Company letterhead

Note: The list indicated above is not exhaustive and may include other information that a referee may want to highlight about the applicant.

13. Does the system trigger an invitation email to referees to upload or submit the referee/reference/recommendation letters into the online application portal?

No. The online application system does not trigger an email to the referees to submit the referee/reference/recommendation letters online. Applicants can request the referees to email the letters to them and the applicants can then upload the letters into the online application portal system on their behalf.

14. How much is the application fee?

Currently, the application fee is S$21.40 per programme applied to. Please note that applications without successful payment of application fee will not be processed. However, do note that fees are subject to revision and in such cases the revised fees will apply.

Financial Matters

19. Is the MSc (MSIS) Programme a subsidised programme?

The substantial tuition subsidy from the Government of Singapore comes in the form of a MOE subsidy which is administered by the Ministry of Education (MOE) and is offered to eligible students up to the normal course duration/minimum candidature (one year for full-time students and two years for part-time students). Students who take longer than the normal course duration will be liable for non-subsidised (Full) tuition fees during the extended semesters. Students need not apply for the MOE subsidy if they are eligible.

Note: From AY 2019 onwards, MOE subsidy only applies to Singaporean and Singapore Permanent Resident (SPR) students. International students applying for Coursework Programmes will be liable for non-subsidised tuition fees.

20. What are the tuition fees for the MSc (MSIS) Programme?

Tuition Fees per Academic Year (AY2022-2023)
MSc (MSIS) Programme Status	Non-Subsidised Fees (inclusive of GST)	Singapore Citizen	Singapore Permanent Resident
	S$	S$	S$
Full-time	39,715	9,750	16,100
Part-time	19,865	4,875	8,050

You can find information on the tuition fees here:

<https://www.ntu.edu.sg/admissions/graduate/financialmatters/pgtuitionfees>

OR

<https://www.ntu.edu.sg/education/graduate-programme/master-in-science-in-information-systems#additionalInformation>

Please note that tuition fees are subject to revision. An estimated increase could be around 10% to 20%.

21. Are there any scholarships available for the MSc (MSIS) Programme?

Currently, there are no scholarships available for this programme.

22. Is Financial Assistance available for the MSc (MSIS) Programme?

Financial assistance is only applicable to students pursuing the Masters by Coursework programmes on a full-time basis. Students paying non-subsidised tuition fees are NOT eligible for Tuition Fee Loan.

<https://www.ntu.edu.sg/admissions/graduate/financialmatters/financialaid>

23. Is the SkillsFuture Mid-Career Enhanced Subsidy applicable to MSc (MSIS) Programme?

Students in MOE-subsidised coursework programmes who are Singapore Citizens and aged 40 and above (based on the year which the student turns 40 years old) may be eligible for higher subsidy under the SkillsFuture Mid-Career Enhanced Subsidy. The fees payable will be 60% lower than the standard subsidised fees payable by other Singaporean students. The amount of fees payable will be reflected in their individual student bill.

Please contact sfcredit@ntu.edu.sg if you have any clarifications with regards to SkillsFuture Mid-Career Enhanced Subsidy.

For more information, please refer to this link:

<https://www.skillsfuture.gov.sg/enhancedsubsidy>

Registration Matters

24. When do I register for the programme after accepting the offer of admission?

The Office of Admissions (OA) will send to you the offer letter via email, containing information about when and where to go for the registration (also known as matriculation). During matriculation exercise, you must produce all original documents that were submitted to us during your application for verification by our staff. Otherwise, your matriculation is considered as incomplete. The list of required documents will be sent together with the offer letter.

You may find the list here as well:

https://www.ntu.edu.sg/admissions/matriculation#Content_C011_Col00

25. Will there be any orientation session organised for new students?

The school will organise the Graduate Orientation Session for new students before the start of the 1st Teaching Week of Semester 1. Students will receive an email from the school regarding this after matriculation.

26. Will I be given a student identification card?

The student matriculation card, also known as the matriculation card (matric card), will be issued during week 1 to 3 of the start of semester.

27. How many courses can I register for in a semester?

Full-time students can register for a maximum of five courses in a semester; Part-time students can register for a maximum of three courses in a semester.

Deferment & Withdrawal from the Programme

28. Can I defer admission for 1 semester or 1 year, or take leave-of-absence?

No, deferment is not allowed in the first semester. You will have to withdraw from the programme and apply for admission again next year.

29. Can I withdraw from the programme after accepting the offer?

You can withdraw from the programme by dropping an email to the programme administrator. Withdrawal from programme via email can only be done before matriculation.

30. Can I withdraw from the programme after matriculation?

You can withdraw from the programme after matriculation by submitting your request for Withdrawal from University electronically via GSLink (under GSLink > Administrative > Withdrawal from University) latest by the end of the 1st Teaching Week of the semester. Otherwise, you will be liable to pay fees for the entire semester.
