

Optimise your chances to find your next opportunity with the French Chamber of Commerce in Singapore

Recently, NTU French Department established a new partnership with the French Chamber of Commerce in Singapore (FCCS)'s recruitment team.

With this new partnership, NTU students learning French or wishing to learn French will receive free personal guidance when applying for an internship or a job advertised by the FCCS.

Established in 1979, the French Chamber of Commerce in Singapore belongs to a worldwide network of 127 French Chambers (CCIFI) in 92 countries with over 37,000 companies.

It's a business association that promotes mutually beneficial trade relations between Singapore & France. Its mission consists of connecting, promoting, bringing together a strong business network of companies and boosting their development in Singapore and the region. FCCS represents a dynamic business platform of over 650 companies and individual members representing a total network of 7,000 contacts in Singapore.
