Event Info

AMUSE Conference 2021

This conference aims to provide a platform for the discussion of air mobility with unmanned systems and engineering. The invited speakers come from leading groups working on Unmanned Aerial System (UAS) integration, in academia as well as industry and commercial partners whose businesses are closely related to drone applications. They will present on topics related to perspectives and initiatives of aviation regulators as well as issues of airborne and ground collision in UAS integration. The conference will be conducted virtually in view of the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic. Registration is free, and we invite anyone from academic, industry, and aviation agencies to register. We are planning for about 150 participants and will facilitate interactions among participants.

 Webinar link will be provided after registration.*
