

NISTH EVENTS

AI+X SYMPOSIUM ON AI FOR SOCIAL GOOD
17 November 2020
2 PM - 5:30 PM (via Zoom)

KEYNOTE:
Dr. Pongkarnsakorn Akhondjalil, Singapore Institute of Artificial Intelligence
Using AI to Improve the Lives of Underprivileged Children

REMARKS:
Prof. Shihua Adam Graham, NTU
Opportunities for AI in the Development of Sustainable Water Purification Systems

ASST. PROF. LEE BOO HUI, JANICE TORRES, NTU
AI for Environmental Sustainability

PROF. CHEUNG CHANG, NTU
Designing AI to Solve Complex, Open-Ended Problems

ASST. PROF. ANDREW PRAHL, NTU
Automating Attention & Treatment for Patients with Autism

DR. MOHAMED CHOH AND DR. WEE LING, NTU
Medical AI in Healthcare: The Case of Stroke

DR. CHEN HIRAGAWA, NISTH
AI for Humanitarian Assistance & Generative AI: Features,
Learning for Human Activity Recognition with P-Site Database

Organized by
AI+X Institute for Science and Technology for Humanity (NISTH), NTU
NTU Institute of Science and Technology for Humanity (NISTH)

17th November 2020, 2:00 PM - 5:30 PM (SGT)

AI+X Symposium on “AI for Social Good, will bring together NISTH Fellows, Shane Snyder, Janice Lee, Gerrard Groggin, Andrew Prael and other esteemed researchers, who are working at the forefront of pushing AI into domains where it can do “social good” with scholars who are reflecting on its broader social and ethical impacts. Register at: <https://blogs.ntu.edu.sg/nisth/2020/11/16/ai-for-social-good/>

THINKOUT
#NISTHThinkOut

Second debate:
Responding to Climate Change

18 November 2020
11am to 12pm
(Online)

Specific contention:
How should we best respond to the problem of a warming planet?

SONNY ROSENTHAL
Assistant Professor
The City School of Communication and Journalism

PERRINE HAMEL
Associate Professor
Asia School of the Environment

Presented by
The NISTH Institute of Science and Technology for Humanity (NISTH)

18th November 2020; 11:00 AM – 12:00 PM

NISTH Think Out: Responding to Climate Change. Join us for the second debate in the series, as our experts, Asst Prof Sonny Rosenthal and Nanyang Asst Prof Perrine Hamel, discuss and deliberate on the subject contention: How should we best respond to the problem of a warming planet?

Register: <https://blogs.ntu.edu.sg/nisth/2020/10/28/nisth-think-out-responding-to-climate-change/>

OTHER EVENTS

SG SINGAPORE
TECH FORUM

17 - 20 NOVEMBER 2020

17th - 19th November 2020

Singapore Tech forum, has closed registrations however, you can view Prime Minister Lee Hsien Loong and Senior Minister Tharman Shanmugaratnam’s keynote sessions, which will be live streamed on the Facebook page (<https://www.facebook.com/singaporeglobalnetwork/>) on 17 Nov, 10pm and 19 Nov, 8am (Singapore time) respectively.

17 November 2020; 4.00 PM – 5:30 PM (SGT)

Saving People or Saving Face? Narratives and the Humanitarian Order in Southeast Asia, presents new research on the narratives through which established and new actors construct and contest ASEAN’s role in Southeast Asian disaster relief. It zooms in on the case of the ASEAN Coordinating Centre for Humanitarian Assistance on Disaster Management (AHA Centre), and offers insights into humanitarian action in Southeast as a deeply political arena where different conceptions of order are asserted, contested and negotiated.

Register at:

https://wis.ntu.edu.sg/webexe88/owa/REGISTER_NTU.REGISTER?EVENT_ID=OA20102310212263