

19th October 2020; 8:00 PM – 9:00 PM (SGT)

Getting real with AI - the hype, the hope and the opportunities, give a simple breakdown of what artificial intelligence is and is not. It will cover important opportunities and challenges that we should be aware of when building or adopting new AI tools.

Register at: https://www.eventbrite.sg/e/webinar-getting-real-with-ai-the-hype-the-hope-and-the-opportunities-tickets-109814451982?aff=ebdssbonlinesearch&keep_tld=1

20th October 2020; 3:30 – 4:45 PM (SGT)

SG Women in Tech's First Anniversary is themed 'Action for Impact'. It will celebrate their progress over the past year, update on new collaborations among industry partners and present actionable initiatives that companies can adopt to grow our Women in Tech community.

Register: <https://www.eventbrite.sg/e/sg-women-in-tech-1-year-anniversary-online-event-tickets-121484253673>

21st October 2020; 11:00 AM – 12:00 PM (SGT)

Join us for the inaugural debate on AI & Regulation. Hear from our expert speakers, Assoc Prof Hannah YeeFen Lim and Assoc Prof Bo An, as they discuss and deliberate on the subject contention: Artificial intelligence systems will need to be stringently regulated by governments in order to ensure their success.

Read more and Register at: <https://blogs.ntu.edu.sg/nisth/2020/09/11/nisth-think-out-ai-regulation/>

21st October 2020; 4:00 PM – 5:00 PM (SGT)

The Future of Food: Printed Meals, presented by SGInnovate provides a platform for a panel of experts to discuss the world of food printing and how printed meals may become the future of food.

Register at: <https://www.eventbrite.sg/e/the-future-of-food-printed-meals-online-event-tickets-116598598547>

Email us at D-NISTH@ntu.edu.sg; Website: www.nisth.ntu.edu.sg