

Looking Forward to August 24 - 28

FALLING WALLS

REMOTE 2020:
THE BREAKTHROUGHS
OF THE YEAR

Deadline: 1st September 2020

This year Falling Walls, will shift from a series of meetings and one conference with a limited number of speakers and topics, to a global showcase that gathers, celebrates and discusses a much broader set of the most recent breakthroughs in science and society – The Falling Walls Breakthroughs of the Year, with a global digital meeting on 9 November. Please let us know, if you are interested, to nominate or be nominated for the most recent breakthroughs in 10 categories from life sciences to science management.

LIVE WEBINAR

Future of Education:
Views from the Top –
East vs. West

C. L. Max Nikias
President Emeritus,
University of Southern California

Professor Ling San
Deputy President and Provost,
Nanyang Technological University

26th August 2020; 8:30 AM (SGT)

Our Deputy President and Provost, Prof Ling San, will be sharing his views on the future of education. He will also be discussing the role of technology in education and the capabilities required for institutions to adapt quickly to the new environment.

Register here to join the digitised and interactive webinar.

28th August 2020; 2 – 4 PM (SGT)

The Centre for Research and Development in Learning (CRADLE) and the Artificial Intelligence Research Institute (AI.R), bring 2 esteemed speakers: Prof Dragan Gašević and Dr Michael J Timms to talk on the New Horizons for Learning Analytics in the Age of AI and AIED: Looking Back and Looking Forward. Join the webinar by Registering here.