SS3313 SPORT COACHING: THEORY TO PRACTICE

Academic Year	2019/20	Semester	1
Course Coordinator
Course Code	SS3313
Course Title	Sport Coaching: Theory to Practice
Pre-requisites	SS2103: Sport Coaching: Foundations of Coaching
No of AUs	3
Contact Hours	Total hours: 39 Lecture: 9 Tutorial & Practical: 30

Course Aims

This course builds on the work undertaken in the foundation of sport coaching and critically examines the understanding and application of sport pedagogy (learning theories and instructional modes) to the sport environment. You will be given opportunities to observe and sample some coaching sessions, mentored by experienced instructors/coaches. In addition, best practice from successful sporting countries will also be explored to give you an international perspective in sport coaching.

Intended Learning Outcomes (ILO)

By the end of the course, you should be able to:

1. Discuss the relationship between effective coaching and positive sporting experience.
2. Compare a range of coaching models and methods.
3. Plan a full season for a specific sport.
4. Explain and apply various learning and coaching styles and strategies
5. Discuss the skill acquisition theory and apply appropriate methods to provide effective feedback to youth athletes.
6. Explain and design a system that promotes team cohesion.
7. Discuss applied methods of reflective practice in sport coaching.
8. Incorporate the teaching of values and life skills into sport-specific coaching sessions.

Course Content

The following topics will be covered:

1. Positive Youth Experience & Effective Coaching
2. Season Planning & Application
3. Teaching Games for Understanding
4. Development of Values & Life Skills through Sport
5. Guided Reflection & Mentoring
6. Coaching Attachment (Online Engagement)
7. Mental Toughness & Performance

8. Creating & Developing Team Cohesion
9. Strategies for Evaluating Sport Programmes
10. Coaching Session & Reflection

Assessment (includes both continuous and summative assessment)

Component	Course ILO Tested	Related Programme LO or Graduate Attributes	Weighting	Team/ Individual	Assessment rubrics

demonstrate appropriate safety, concern and good conduct in sport situations towards other individuals involved in the activity

Formative feedback

Feedback for learning will be verbally provided during each practical session where you have the opportunity to learn instructional models and pedagogical knowledge, and apply them during the practical sessions.

Feedback will be given periodically in relation to the diary log. Generic verbal and written feedback will be provided to the class prior to the test and examination.

Throughout the course, you will have the opportunity to use recording devices to help record your fellow classmates' coaching sessions for observation and analysis. During the learning process, you will receive verbal feedback and suggestions for improvement will be provided.

Learning and Teaching approach

Approach	How does this approach support you in achieving the learning outcomes?
Lectures	Lectures will provide information for key learning concepts and theories, and support understanding of key concepts
Practical Sessions	Practical sessions will: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Give hands-on experiential learning to support key theories and information provided in class- Provide tasks for you to apply knowledge that has been taught recently to solve specific problems or context-based scenarios.- Give space and time for small group activities and discussions to allow you to assimilate the content and for sharing of ideas- Allow opportunity for verbal feedback from instructor relating to application of theory to practice.
Online learning	Time will be given for learning from online materials as a part of flip teaching approach. These materials will support key concepts covered in lectures and practical sessions.

Course Policies and Student Responsibilities

(1) General

You are expected to complete all assigned pre-class readings and activities, attend all classes – lecture and laboratory - punctually and submit all scheduled assignments and take tests by due dates. You are not allowed to swap laboratory groups without express permission from the course coordinator. You are expected to take responsibility to follow up with course notes, assignments and course related announcements for sessions you have missed. You are expected to participate in all discussions and class activities unless there is a valid medical reason not to do so.

(2) Absenteeism

Absence from class without a valid reason will affect your overall course grade. Valid reasons include falling sick supported by a medical certificate and participation in NTU's approved activities supported by an excuse letter from the relevant bodies.

If you miss a lecture, you must inform the course instructor via email prior to the start of the class.

(3) Absence Due to Medical or Other Reasons

If you are sick and not able to complete a test or submit an assignment, you have to submit the original Medical Certificate (or another relevant document) to the Sport Science & Management (or Home School) administration to obtain official leave. Without this, the missed assessment component will not be counted towards the final grade. There are no make-ups allowed.

(4) Attire and safety

You are expected to participate in practical sessions. Most of these activities involve exercise. In addition, you are expected to wear appropriate attire for participation, obey safety rules, and take appropriate care of and return all equipment after use.

Academic Integrity

Good academic work depends on honesty and ethical behaviour. The quality of your work as a student relies on adhering to the principles of academic integrity and to the NTU Honour Code, a set of values shared by the whole university community. Truth, Trust and Justice are at the core of NTU's shared values.

As a student, it is important that you recognize your responsibilities in understanding and applying the principles of academic integrity in all the work you do at NTU. Not knowing what is involved in maintaining academic integrity does not excuse academic dishonesty. You need to actively equip yourself with strategies to avoid all forms of academic dishonesty, including plagiarism, academic fraud, collusion and cheating. If you are uncertain of the definitions of any of these terms, you should go to the academic integrity website for more information. Consult your instructor(s) if you need any clarification about the requirements of academic integrity in the course.

Collaboration is encouraged for your work in the class and laboratories because peer-to-peer learning helps you understand the subject better and working in a team trains you to better communicate with others. Working together and exchanging ideas and experiences will help improve the quality of your assessed presentation. It is important to credit others for their contribution to your work which promotes ethical practices and academic integrity.

Your name _____

Write the name of each of your group members in a separate column. For each person, indicate the extent to which you agree with the statement on the left, using a scale of 1-5 (1=strongly disagree; 2=disagree; 3=neutral; 4=agree; 5=strongly agree). Total the numbers in each column. The final score for each student will be an average of the scores given by all group members.

Evaluation Criteria	Group member:	Group member:	Group member:	Group member:
Attends group meetings regularly and arrives on time.
Contributes meaningfully to group discussions.
Completes group assignments on time.
Prepares work in a quality manner.
Demonstrates a cooperative and supportive attitude.
Contributes significantly to the success of the project.
