Academic Year	2019/20	Semester	1
Course Coordinator
Course Code	SS5103
Course Title	Squash
Pre-requisites	Nil

Course Aims

The aim of this course is to introduce you to the key elements involved in playing the game of squash. The course will also provide ideas on developing skills through adequate physical and mental preparation. Analysis of video clips (IT) will be used to introduce elements of style or form and to explain the rules of the game. The rules may subsequently be modified to suit the class. Sport science knowledge will be enlisted to facilitate the learning of technical skills and game play. Game-specific assessment tools will be introduced.

Intended Learning Outcomes (ILO)

By the end of the course, you should be able to:

1. Play squash with technical skill and tactical awareness in recreational and competitive situations.
2. Recognise appropriate ideas that encourage fitness, practice, progression, group participation, and satisfaction.
3. Demonstrate an understanding of the basic rules in a written test, verbally when observing and actively during a sequence of play.
4. Demonstrate an ability to mark and referee (apply the rules as an official) in a game of squash.

Formative feedback

Feedback for learning will be in a verbal form. It will be provided during each class session and during individual practices. Group and individual level feedback on skills and play potential will be provided.

Learning and Teaching approach

Approach	How does this approach support students in achieving the learning outcomes?
Play and Performance	Practical sessions provide theoretical and hands-on appreciation of the game. Associated interaction provides immediate opportunities to clarify, review and test. You must understand the game and related game concepts. Safety concepts important.
Practice, observation and feedback	You have the opportunity to develop and test their own personal skills and to develop wider appreciation of the game through observation and engagement ability to articulate learning outcomes. Lecturer can provide ongoing feedback and supplementary information to refine outcomes during play and practice

Course Policies and Student Responsibilities

1. General

- You are expected to attend all classes – practical sessions and IT sessions.
- You are expected to seek guidance and feedback from the lecturer. To follow up with course notes, course related announcements for sessions that have been missed.
- You are expected to provide classmates with feedback and encouragement on progress

2. Absenteeism

- Your participation and performance in practical activities make up a significant portion of the student teacher's course grade.
- Absence from class without a valid reason will affect the student teacher's overall course grade.
- Valid reasons include falling sick supported by a medical certificate and participation in NIE's and NTU's approved activities supported by an excuse letter from the relevant bodies.

3. Attire / Footwear

- You are to be appropriately attired for the squash lessons (i.e. t-shirt & shorts).
- Only non-marking court shoes are allowed (i.e. the colour of the sole should be white, transparent or yellow-gummed).

Academic Integrity

Good academic work depends on honesty and ethical behaviour. The quality of the work of a student relies on adhering to the principles of academic integrity and to the NTU Honour Code, a set of values shared by the whole university community. Truth, Trust and Justice are at the core of NTU's shared values.

As a student, it is important to recognize the responsibilities in understanding and applying the principles of academic integrity in all the work undertaken at NTU. Not knowing what is involved in maintaining academic integrity does not excuse academic dishonesty. The student needs to actively equip him or herself with strategies to avoid all forms of academic dishonesty, including plagiarism, academic fraud, collusion and cheating. If you are uncertain of the definitions of any of these terms, you should go to the academic integrity website for more information. Consult your instructor(s) if you need any clarification about the requirements of academic integrity in the course.
