CN Yang Scholars Programme

"The CN Yang Scholars Programme (CNYSP) Scholarship has allowed me to grow both personally and intellectually. With a career in research in mind, CNYSP provides the cultural experiences needed to communicate my ideas well in a path as diverse as academia. The research training so far has deepened my understanding of the challenges researchers face and has set me on a journey to develop my resilience for the future.

Taking accelerated courses helped me to quickly adjust to the rigour of university life, teaching me how to balance priorities while excelling academically. An Overseas Learning Trip gave me the chance to visit ETH Zurich and CERN, exposing me to lesser-explored areas of Chemistry and refining my future goals.

"I enjoy multidisciplinary learning and aim to broaden my horizons while deepening my understanding across various fields. The NTU-University Scholars Programme Scholarship aligns perfectly with this goal, offering an interdisciplinary programme. What stood out most was the invaluable community — the chance to learn and grow alongside peers and seniors who continually inspire me.

The most rewarding aspect has been the vibrant community, which feels like a 'second home.' I have made lasting friendships and even travelled abroad with some through the NTU-USP 'Study Abroad' programme, constantly learning from each other's unique backgrounds.

Through the 'Field Work and Documentation' module, I had the opportunity to travel to Vietnam to research sustainable farming. This experience provided key insights into sustainable agriculture, and I look back on it fondly — not only for the knowledge gained but also for the connections formed."

This scholarship has connected me with NTU's extensive network of professionals and alumni, which has been crucial for building industry relationships.

This exposure highlighted NTU's innovative entrepreneurial community spirit. I also had the privilege of sharing my entrepreneurial journey with Senior Minister of State Low Yen Ling. As a recipient of this scholarship, I have had the opportunity to meet students from diverse backgrounds and gain valuable financial support, including hall and personal allowances, which has allowed me to focus on my studies. I used the grant money to purchase camera equipment I had been wanting for a long time, and I am excited to start creating content. This scholarship also helped me connect with like-minded peers, such as short film directors and camera enthusiasts, opening up opportunities for collaboration. Additionally, we are offered workshops and conferences tailored to our passions, which help us grow and develop our talents. All these experiences will be valuable in my journey as an actress."

SCHOLARSHIP INTERVIEW

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

When should I apply?

Apply for scholarships immediately after or shortly after submitting your application for admission, instead of waiting for the admission offers to be released. You are encouraged not to defer your application until after your National Service (if applicable). The admission and scholarship application windows are similar.

When will I hear back?

Interviews will take place mainly between March and May. Shortlisted applicants will be notified via email to attend an interview, so please check your email regularly.

Who will interview me?

You may be interviewed by a scholarship panel comprising academic and administrative staff. The number of panel members and composition will vary depending on the school.

What happens after the interview?

You may expect an email informing you of the outcome within two to three weeks, unless you have been informed otherwise. To ascertain when you can expect to receive the outcome, you may check with the party that sent you the interview invitation or check with the staff at the interview.

WARDROBE GUIDE FOR NTU SCHOLARSHIP INTERVIEW

For Him

Choose an outfit that is not too casual, as it may suggest a lack of seriousness about the scholarship and the interview. Even if you are interviewing for an arts scholarship and want to show your creative side, a possible ensemble of a preppy sweater-and-shirt combo will be ideal, rather than a T-shirt and jeans. Looking smart does not require a white shirt and black suit. You could opt for a coloured suit in blue or grey and a pair of well-polished shoes. In addition, showing up with a tie is always a plus.

For Her

For the ladies, if you are wearing a dress, choose one that is appropriately fitted and of suitable length, in classic shades like navy blue. Complete the look with a pair of comfortable heels. For a top-and-bottom combination, white and grey make a safe colour pairing. Pair a simple yet stylish blouse with well-fitting slacks or a knee-length skirt, and complement the outfit with simple jewellery.
