

COURSE OUTLINE

Course Code / Title : HA3024 China's Re-emergence in World Politics

Pre-requisites : HA1001

No. of AUs. : 3

Contact Hours : 39

Course Aims

The purpose of this course is to provide students with an understanding China's rise in world politics and an appreciation of its international affairs. The course prepares students to take a critical view on one of the most systemic shift of our time – the emergence of China as the world's largest economy and as a major power in the world. This course will investigate events, contexts and cases that have shaped China's foreign policy, diplomatic engagements, militarization, and economy.

Intended Learning Outcomes (ILO)

By the end of the course, you should be able to:

1. Describe China's rise and its impact in international relations
2. Appraise contemporary China's foreign policy and economic policy
3. Discuss a theoretically and conceptually grounded understanding on the conduct of Chinese diplomacy
4. Critically debate China's international politics

Course Content

1. Chinese foreign policy
2. China's emergence and the historical forces behind this rise
3. Chinese economic policy
4. Chinese military reforms
5. International organizations and multilateralism

Course Assessment

Class Participation : 20%

Museum Reflection Piece : 20%

Mid-Term Quiz : 30%

Final Quiz : 30%

Total -----

100%